

Dunja Jeličić – Serbian representative at the Junior Eurovision Song Contest 2016

Dunja Jeličić, with the song "U LA LA LA " will represent Serbia at this year's Junior Eurovision Song Contest 2016 to be held in Malta.

The song "U LA LA LA " was composed by Vladimir Graić, and the text was written by Leontina Vukomanović and Dunja Jeličić.

Radio Television of Serbia, in cooperation with the Children's Belgrade Cultural Center (CBCC), selected the child - representative.

Based on the requirements of RTS, a child who represents Serbia at the Junior Eurovision Song Contest 2016 must be an excellent singer and dancer, have great communication skills and feel free on the scene, the CBCC sought candidates in the studio "Little School of Musical", with the help of a committee comprised of Ivana Peters, vocal teacher and last year's representative at the Eurovision Song Contest as a composer, Ivana Tabori Obradović, editor of the musical and stage program at the CBCC, Tatjana Perović Vladušić, head of public relations and marketing at the CBCC, Vladimir Graić, author of the song and the composer of the song "Prayer", Serbia`s entry and the winning number at the Eurovision Song Contest 2007.

Dunja Jeličić, the elected representative, proved to be the best choice following the propositions with excellent knowledge of English.

This year's Junior Eurovision Song Contest will be held on November 20th 2016 in Valletta, Malta. The two-hour show program will be broadcast live on the RTS channels from 16.00 to 18.00.
